To Whom It May Concern:

Mr. Razvan T. Radulescu has just completed an elective at the Massachusetts General Hospital in endocrinology. I was the Attending Physician on the service for much of the time, so I can comment about Mr. Radulescu's performance. He did an outstanding job.

Mr. Radulescu's background fund of knowledge was truly superior. He could use that knowledge effectively in formulating analyses of cases and always asked good questions. He presented cases well and extensively reviewed appropriate literature. His write-ups were outstanding. He worked very hard and was extremely thorough in his personal interactions with patients. Mr. Radulescu shows great promise for a future in academic medicine.

Sincerely yours,
